About UrbanRamak.

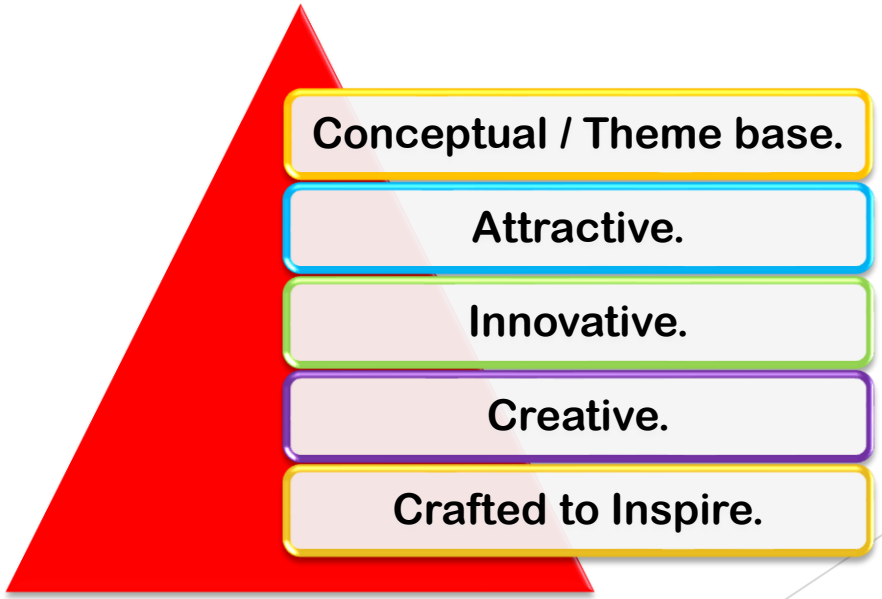

UrbanRamak is a new range of play equipment developed by Shree Raghuvir Industries. It is crafted with expertise and extract of our experience in this field. Its conceptual approach help to bring the children to playground in this digital world to develop various qualities as well as to make them fit. This Segment is attractive and its uniqueness will work as magnet to bring children to playground.

In this Platform the equipment are crafted in such a way that the children will get inspire to learn more about the concept while playing with the equipment. So it's simple "Play & Inspire". So go for it to make your vision possible of filling happiness and joy for children. Our team will be ready to help you to craft your vision of making children happy.

Why UrbanRamak?

Its an approach to bring out the children to playground by its conceptual or theme based aesthetic. We all know that the children are getting trapped in the digital prison of games and entertainment. And it has shown negative effects on children such as obesity, irritating nature, eye problems, etc. Also the children love new themes and concepts to be around. So UrbanRamak is the perfect source to take them to ground and inspire.
